TUESDAY EVENING, APRIL 21.

For this section warmer, fair, westerly wind.

FEAST OF THE PASSOVER—Tomorrow evening the Israelites will begin their celebration of the feast of Passover, which commemorates the deliverance of the descendants of Jacob from Egyptian bondage, under the leadership of Moses. Preparations have been making for some weeks, which must not be slighted during the week devoted to the feast of unleavened bread. The festival is also made the occasion for family reunions, and all traveling men and absentees from home make it a point to participate in its celebration with their families. On the first night, all the members of the household gather around the family board, where a water around the table, and the history of the feast of the Passover is given, together with the reading of the Haggadah, and appropriate songs as to the event. The table is decked with many symbols peculiar to the occasion, each of which is explained. Four cups of wine are drunk with appropriate blessings, while unleavened cake, occupies a prominent place, and is sometimes referred to as the "poor man's bread." The evening's service begins with the reading of the Haggadah, which is capable of being sung by the youngest child who is capable of singing the words: "Behold, this is the bread of affliction which our fathers ate in the land of Egypt. Let all those who are hungry come in and eat, and all the needy enter to enjoy with us the feast of the Passover."

SHIP PARROT—Mr. John H. Parrot, who was appointed Superintendent of the American Coal Company on Wednesday last, has succeeded the late A. Jackson Clark. Mr. Parrot is one of the oldest of the company, having occupied the position of Superintendent since 1867. In 1870 he was appointed shipping agent at Alexandria, Va., which position he held until 1885, when he succeeded him in the general supervision of the mining operations of the company. In addition to his appointment at that time, he was general agent for the company at New York. He came here in 1888. He has been assistant superintendent for nearly three years, and has established himself in our midst. Mr. Parrot is well acquainted to the position he occupies, and he has the confidence and trust of the company. In addition to his appointment at that time, he was general agent for the company at New York. He came here in 1888. He has been assistant superintendent for nearly three years, and has established himself in our midst. POLICE REPORT—Last night was clear and cool with five prisoners and one leader at the station house.

The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases:

Nelson Keith and Harry Davis, colored, were fined for disorderly conduct, were fined $10 each on 10 days on the chain gang, and Tom Bryant, arrested on the same charge, was dismissed.

Russ Campbell, colored, for an assault on Morris Kahn, also colored, was fined $1.50 on 10 days on the chain gang for 15 days.

Alie Masly, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed for want of evidence.

Olaf Anderson, arrested, for rolling a wheelbarrow on the sidewalk, was dismissed with a reprimand.

Two white men for disorderly conduct, were fined $2.50.

Russ Arnold and Wm. Taylor, for an assault on Jesse Penn, were fined $2.50 each. The Mayor has given the police officers instructions to arrest all boys caught playing on railroad cars.

PERSONAL—One of the leading characters in "The Rover," a comedy founded on Poe's poem of that name, which was presented with great success in Baltimore last night, was impersonated by Mr. James W. Burroughs (James Wyngate), formerly of this city.

Rev. J. I. Vance and Mr. K. Kemper will leave here this evening for Warrenton to attend the meeting of the Presbytery of the Chesapeake.

Miss D. Spencer, of Lynchburg, is visiting Mrs. George Darley.

Julius Gieseler was so unwell yesterday that he had to adjourn the April term of the Fairfax County Court.

Dr. F. W. Ebner and family have gone to Sandy Springs, Md., where they will make their home for the present.

DEATH OF CAPT. HOLLINGSHEAD—Capt. Frank Hollingshead, at one time a well-known steamboat master on the Potomac, died suddenly in Washington last night. The deceased was about 54 years of age. Shortly after the war Capt. Hollingshead took command of the steamer Keyport, running on the Southern mail route between Washington, this city and Aquia creek. In 1875 he purchased the steamer Arrow, and ran her from Washington to Mt. Vernon. In this venture he was very successful. During the centennial year his receipts aggregated a large sum. He retired from business in 1878, and has since then resided in Washington. While a man of apparently robust health, he was in reality almost an invalid, and had suffered for ten or twelve years from various complaints.

ELECTRIC LIGHTS ON THE POTOMAC—Mention was made a few days ago of the intention of the District authorities to place electric lights on the river front. The city of Alexandria, six miles below, has determined to do the same thing, and three or four electric arcs will soon be flashing on the Potomac in front of that city. These, with the electric lights that are to be placed this season at several additional pleasure grounds on the river's margin, will give the Potomac many brilliant headlands and coves to flash out into the darkness of the coming summer nights, and it is certain that, with the increased use of these lights, it will not be many years before navigators plying their way on the streams will never be out of sight of one or more of these radiant gatherings.—Baltimore Sun

GOOD TEMPLARS—A re-union of Golden Light Lodge will take place at their hall tonight, and it is expected that a goodly number of the old members will be present. As stated to the members a few weeks ago, there will be a grand surprise for them on this occasion. It will be a visitation from Columbia, the most talented lodge of Washington. About 100 members of this lodge will come here on the 8 o'clock train in masquerade attire, and entertain the members of the resident lodge. Two new members will be initiated, and the meeting portends good for the lodge, both socially and numerically.

COUNTY ITEMS—Plans are being drawn for the building of a graded school house in Washington district.

A meeting will be held tonight at Walker school house to forward the construction of graded roads.

A tract of 46 acres of land near Fort Myer was sold last week by James E. Clements, attorney, to a New York syndicate for $40,000.

Mr. E. H. Morsell, of Washington, advertises lawn, garden and cemetery goods, of which he has a large and complete stock.

REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE—The republican committee met at their headquarters on K Street last night to determine whether or not to put a ticket in the field at the approaching election. After a lengthy discussion the committee adjourned until Thursday night in order to obtain reports from the ward committees. It is understood that many of the colored voters insist on having a ticket, as they want some excitement at least on election day.

APPLICATIONS APPROVED—The Board of Excise Commissioners of this city have approved the following applications for liquor licenses: P. F. Hall, Anne Bill, E. T. Morphy, Carr & Swannam, M. Lawler, E. Ward Quinn, Thor. Lannon, A. B. Travers, Jas. Fegan, Jas. McCoen, H. B. Palmer and Edward Hughes.

THE LOAN ASSOCIATION—The directors of the Manufacturing and Loan Association met last night, when it was determined to hold a stockholders' meeting of the Association on Thursday night, at which the charter recently granted will be accepted and arrangements made for opening subscription books.

CORPORATION COURT—Judge J. K. M. Norton presiding—Murray vs. Myers; report of commissioner of sale confirmed.

F. R. Windsor vs. A. & F. R. R.; suit to recover damages for the killing of a mule; jury and verdict for defendant.

Court adjourned till to-morrow morning.

FINES—Since yesterday about 100,000 herring and 1500 shad have arrived at Fishward. Herring sold at $4.00-$4.00 per thousand, and shad at $8-$12 per hundred.

BRISTOL, TENNESSEE.

The Progressive South

Where JOHN H. LAMAR, President of the Richmond Terminal, says the next large development is to be. "The South is the favored spot of the whole United States; and is the great field for immigration when we can get it, and the place for happy and comfortable homes. I expect the next large development to be in the Bristol district—Bristol and East Tennessee section, which has practically the same natural advantages as Birmingham, but which have never been worked up. This section will grow rapidly within the next few years. The railroad facilities are good now, and are being improved all the time."

BRISTOL, TENN.

Is a country richer in coal and iron than any single State in America. It is a solid city, backed by unlimited resources in great variety, and is being pushed to the fore by a well-organized, systematically-working Chamber of Commerce. The outlook is favorable for Bristol to become the Pittsburgh of the South. Address CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The U. S. S. Dispatch with Secretary Blaine and party on board passed up the river this evening.

Mr. John R. Tillett, of Manassas, has commenced the construction of the bridge at Burke's Station, the contract for which was recently awarded him by the Board of Supervisors of Fairfax county.

The damage done to the machinery of the steam-er Arrow, by the breaking of the piston rod on Sunday while the steamer was on her way up the river, will amount to several thousand dollars. The steamer will probably be taken to Baltimore for repairs.

New iron steps are being erected at the front entrance to the old County Court House in place of the stone steps that were wantonly destroyed several years ago.

A freight train ran into a hand car at Lynch's station on the Midland road yesterday and killed a section boss, grinding him to pieces.

A youth who has some knowledge of the art of printing can secure employment at this office.

The old established firm of Josiah H. D. Smoot & Son offers to the trade at reduced prices five million feet of lumber of all kinds, five thousand doors, three thousand windows of sash, and one million shingles. This firm is shipping large quantities of building material to the surrounding country daily and being the oldest established lumber yard in Virginia has justly gained a reputation for fair dealing.

The Effect Was Magical.

I suffered from cancer on my lip that defied the skill of the best physicians of the State. I had it burned out, but the operation only made it worse, causing it to spread over more surface and eat deeper in. I finally used Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) to heal it up and drove the poison out of my blood. The effect of the Specific was magical! It healed up entirely without leaving a scar as a reminder. This was over four years ago, and since then there has been no sign of a return of the cancer. I will cheerfully answer any inquiries in regard to my case.
